Hello! It's very cool that soon is your birthday! I celebrated my birthday at Greenland. In that park there's so many trad meolins and the park is soft and comfy. When it's my birthday, we order a cake with candles. It's actually very fun! When my next birthday comes out i will order some things from Wildberries. On wildberries there's so many cheap items. Any way i believe that you will be happy on your birthday. And you will have the best birthday ever!

Best wishes,
Zakhar

Among Us

I'm playing Among Us because this game is very interesting and it needs a special way. Among Us is a game for different ages. It can be played by adults and children. The main characters is the one who is a imposter. The plot of the game is that a group of astronauts is moving through in the space. But they are overtaken by two troubles at once - a bunch of Little breaks and an unknown killer. The astronauts are located in spaceship. They are waiting in the Shuttle. 5, 4, 3, 2, 1. Go! You are given roles. I your role is a Crewmate. You and the rest of the crew must repair the ship, if the task battery is completely full, then the impostors lose. But! If you got the role of an impostor, then your task is to kill all the crewmates and not give up your role. If you are somehow suspected, you can be thrown out at the vote. If you killed at the crewmates, then you won. I would recommend this game <sup>to</sup> my friend, because I want play with her.

Hello, one day I played a game and it changed my mind. My favorite game - cry of fear. Main character is Simon Henriksson. The game takes place in Stockholm. Simon is a depressed guy of 22 years old. He decided to take a walk at night. Suddenly, he saw a wounded man lying on the road, he decided to help, squatted down next to the man and worriedly tried to help. Unfortunately, a car flew out of the corner and crashed into them, Simon was pinned against the wall by the car, his spine broke... He fell into a deep depression, He remained a wheelchair user... His psychiatrist tested new and untested pills on him, which worsened his condition. His doctor advised him to write a book, and the whole game begins with this. The actions take place in his imagination where he is not ~~disabled~~ and is trying to cope with his

The goal of the game is to immerse yourself in a deep state and show to those who like old and depressive games. I would recommend the game to those who like old and depressive games.

"Procrastination is the thief of time, says him" - I agree with this quotation. Procrastination is ~~procrastination~~ postponing or avoidance of any job or business. It steals my "steals" your ~~time~~ free time, leaving you tough deadlines for you business. Sooner or later everyone <sup>can</sup> ~~face~~ face with it, and then, your main task is to cope with it. The best example of procrastination is me. Usually, I can postpone my homework and do some time-wasting activities.

In conclusion, procrastination is a very common issue in society, and people must be able to cope with it. Don't let the procrastination to poison your life. Remember that procrastination is the thief of time. And time is your life. //H
